"DR. A. M. MAURICKAU—My Draw Sir: "The Married Woman's Privato Medical Companion, for which I enclosed one dollar to your address, came asfely to hand. I would not have troubled you with these few times, but that I am impolled by a some of gratitude, for myself and wife, to give utterance to our sincere and heartfelt emotions.

"My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and doring confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time [now about two months] I heard your book highly spoken of as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I can not express to you the relief it affected my distressed mind and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desomenux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No pecuniary consideration can ever repay the obligations I am under to you for having been the means of imparting to us the matters contained in 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion. But for this, cre another year would have passed over my bend, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my children left motheriess.'

"My Dear Sin: I know you will have the kindness to bear with me in encroaching upon your time, while I acknowledge (in behalf of myseif and wife) the obligations we feel curselves under to you in having made known certain matters, contained in your most invaluable. Married Woman's Private Medical Companion. It has been worth its weight in gold to me. If I express myself rather warmly, you will see that I can not do so too warmly, when I inform you of the extent to which I have, through it, been benefited. I will state my situation when I obtained your book through the merest carlosity. I look upon it as miss of the most fortunate events of my life. I had been married some ten years, and was the father of seven children. I was long struggling unceasingly, to the end that I might gain a moderate competency, but the results of my utmost exertions at the end left me a boat where I was at the beginning of each year; and that only, with the most stinted economy, safficing with barely the necessaries of life. Finally, this constant effort was beginning to have its effect upon my health: I felt less capable to endure its continuance, while I felt the necessity of perseverance.

"This constant, unceasing struggle on my part was imperative, in consequence of the prostrated condition of my wife (with occasional intermission) for six years, much of the time confined to ber bed, and of course incapable of taking the charge and management of household affairs. Her condition score from causes of which I was ignorant. Oh! what would I have given had I the six years to live over again! What would my wife have given to have been spared the long days and still longer nights prostrate on a bed of sickness!—all of which would have been avoided, had I then seen a copy of 'THE Marnurn avoided, had I then seen a copy of 'THE MARKIED WORLD' PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION."

To those yet unmarried, but contemplating marriage, or perhaps besitating as to the propriety of incurring the responsibilities attendant upon it, the importance of being possessed of the revelations contained in these pages, so intimately involving their future happiness, can not be appreciated.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriage; neither is it necessary, since it is every one's duty to become possessed of knowledge whereby the sufferings to which a wife, a mother, or a sister, may be subject, can be obviated.
